A STANDARD HISTORY BY

GEN. LEE.

A Work of National and Permanent Value.

MEMOIRS OF THE WAR,

By Gen. Henry Lee.

("LIGHT HORSE HARRY.")

Thoroughly Revised and Annotated, BY GEN. ROBERT E. LEE.

WHO HAS ADDED A FULL BIOGRAPHY OF HIS FATHER.

1 vol octavo, 640 pages, with new Steel Portraits of Gen. Henry Lee, Gen. Robert E. Lee, and Gen. Nathaniel Greene; beautiful Steel Engravings of "Marion Crossing the Pedee," and the "surrender of Cornwallis;" Maps of the siege of Charleston, S. C.; the siege of Yorktown, Va.; the Battle fought near Camden; the Battle of Guilford; the Battle of Hobkirk's Hill; and a sketch of Gen. Henry Lee's residence.

This admirable history of the operations of the American Armies during the Revolutionary War in the Southern Department of the United States is the standard work on the subject of which it treats; and this new edition, revised, corrected, and enlarged by Gen. Robert E. Lee, the distinguished son of the author, and embellished by elegant Engravings, and original Maps never before published, in a volume of the highest value to every intelligent person.

This history has been for a long time out of print, and because of its accuracy as a history of that most stirring period and that were in great demand by readers. It was much sought for and a new edition demanded.

It is seldom that a historical work by a distinguished author has the advantage of a revision by so distinguished a son, and both of them great military leaders in the same section of the country.

Cord wood for steamboats and Rafting timber for the Sugar plantations lower down on the Mississippi River. Health about equal to that of Eastern North Carolina.

Enterprising men willing and competent to embark in the lumber business, in any of its forms, will find a most ample field for large profits. The price of Cypress plank is from $25 to $35 per thousand; of pine from $20 to $25, both greatly in demand along the Ouachita and its navigable tributaries. Day laborers get good rations and 15 to 20 dollars per month; Mechanics from 2 to 6 dollars per day.

Shoemakers, Tanners, Blacksmiths, Wheelwrights and especially Gin-wrights can find ready employment in the vicinity of these lands. At first the emigrant rates, and about $60 Passenger rate only, will be required, to get them up through. I propose to superintend in person as many of these places, as I can procure suitable overseers for each emigrant who arrives, may accompany to settlement, work for wages, or can also if he may purchase the lands on 3 years credit paying 8 per cent. interest on the present Agreed price.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1869.

HUNG HIM DEAD.

We chronicled the hanging of a member of the league, some three months ago, in Orange. We condemned the act in terms a little stronger than we should have done, had we known all the facts, as we now know them. The member of the league was hanged for improper overtures to a young lady, whom he threatened to force if she did not comply with his wishes.

On Wednesday night of last week, Cyrus Guy was hung. Cyrus was of good standing in the league, but got out of it. His offence, we learned, was putting his hands upon a lady with evil intent.

The Governor, through his organ the Standard, is calling on the Legislature to give him power to put down these lawless spirits in Orange and Chatham, who are sowing the seed of "discord, anarchy and confusion."

It will do very well for those who live in towns and cities, to wait for the slow process of the law; but when unprotected females in the country are assailed by the brutes of the league, the people seem determined to take their own defence into their own hands. Is this to be wondered at, considering the nature of the assaults?

If the Governor, by virtue of his office as President of the Leagues, would send out Pilgrim Ashley, the Rev. S. N. Whitson, City Collector, with a few other straggling ministers of the gospel, so-called, to instruct the ignorant members of their Leagues and teach them that, while the law does not hang for attempts at rape, the Ku Klux do, it would have a tendency to put down hanging in Orange. The Governor wants the Legislature to act. What action can they take? The Governor has invoked the aid of the United States Government; United States troops are now in Orange, yet the hanging goes on. The Governor has had out armed men in Alamance, Jones, and Wake—what have they done? who have they arrested? The Governor, by calling out his worthless league troops, added one to the catalogue of murders.

The tirades in the Governor's organ about Ku Klux outrages, and all that, has made an impression on the public mind that His Excellency is disposed to deal very leniently with the class of villains that have fallen victims to Ku Klux vengence; and what is more deplorable, these villains have imbibed the notion, by the efforts made for their protection, that they have some sort of immunity for their wickedness. These are facts, and such facts as are not likely to either lessen the number of outrages that have been so common throughout the country, nor change the manner of avenging them.

When a villain, who is disposed to exercise his villainy, reads in the Standard the condemnations that are dealt out against those, who under the most stinging sense of heinous outrages, avenge their wrongs, or the wrongs of their female relatives; and sees detectives and militia, and Federal troops, sent out, as he conceives, to some extent, for his protection, he is not likely to hesitate as he otherwise might do, in the commission of crime. And when the crime is committed, and the sufferers see the same things, they are none the more likely to hesitate in avenging the wrong in their own way.

We justify none of these things; we only state what is true, and what will always be found true, so long as human nature is what it is. We would ask any man, who is disposed to condemn these proceedings, what he would do in case a negro, or white man either, were to put his hand feloniously on the person of a female of his family, or threaten violence to her, or to actually to outrage her person?

THE SENATE VS. THE RAILROAD—GALLOWAY ON SMITH.

President Smith, of the North Carolina Railroad, since his abortive effort to lease the Road, seems not to stand very high in favor with the colored Grant Elector, A. H. Galloway, of New Hanover.

Galloway has introduced a resolution into the Senate, calling upon Gov. Holden to remove Mr. Smith, from the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Railroad, for his impertinence to the General Assembly, in his Salisbury speech last Summer. But he will hardly get his resolution through, as the Major is known to be liberal towards the "hands."

Galloway, in discussing the resolution to suspend the collection of taxes due from the Wilmington and Weldon, and the Raleigh and Gaston Roads, said the Stock of the former was worth more than that of the North Carolina Road, "because," said he, "the one is run by a man of brains, and the other by a man without brains."

If these two gentlemen should appeal to the "Code" for a settlement of their little difficulty, it will make more work for Gen. French and Judge Cantwell. The latter carries a copy of the Code in his pocket, and his judicial experience in adjusting the Abbott-Engelhard affair, highly qualifies him for the arrangement of these breaches of personal amenity; and we may hope there may be no railroad or senatorial blood shed.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Our Legislative reports will show, what is perfectly apparent to every one personally present, that the whole business, especially of the House of Commons, consists in efforts on the part of a few to ferret out and expose the mismanagement, (to use no harsher term,) of our public moneys or bonds, by public functionaries, and a continual effort and maneuvering on the part of many Republicans, to stave off, embarrass and prevent investigation.

We say, this fact is perfectly apparent; the people see it; they will remember it; they will remember that some who could give information, put themselves beyond the reach of investigation, others are prevented from answering questions that would throw light on the matter, by all sorts of tricks and interferences. In short, it is perfectly apparent that nothing will be allowed by the dominant party that will expose the frauds of their friends.

SEE HERE!—We notice that Mr. Moring of Wake sticks to his party through thick and thin, in every vote taken; all of which was reasonably to be expected, but, Mr. Moring, how is it that you are there voting at all? Are you not banned by the 14th amendment? Have you ever had your disabilities removed by Congress? Didn't you hold the office of Justice of the Peace before the war and, also, during the war? We ask for information, and call the attention of the House of Representatives to the subject, at the same time declaring our conviction that if it be not had by private enquiry, that you are banned, no steps will be taken on the subject.

The Legislature of North Carolina.

NIGHT SESSION.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY EVENING, Dec. 7.

House met pursuant to adjournment.

Mr. Pou moved that the committee adjourn to Thursday next, and make it the special order for 11 o'clock.

The motion was seconded by Mr. Sinclair.

Mr. Moore, of Chowan, objected.

Mr. Malone said, This committee was raised on the motion of the leader of the Republican party in the House, the gentleman from Johnston. Yes, sir, a good Republican who says he glories in the idea that the party was born "amid a halo of glory." I was opposed to going into Committee of the Whole, but when every other proposition was voted down, being willing and anxious to go on with the investigation, I concurred.

The attempt to get a bill passed, (offered by myself) to give this committee plenary powers dragged; it took a whole week to get it reported by the Judiciary Committee, and finally, after every conceivable objection had been offered, it passed, and now lies slumbering in the other end of the Capitol; and when it will be passed, if ever, God only knows.

Gentlemen say they do not intend to let the Democrats lead in this matter. Well, I hope they will go on with this investigation. The Superintendent was asked a question, intended to show the animus of the Railroad Companies in refusing to report or disclose to that officer the true condition of their Roads, but the question was objected to and the answer not given.

He has done all an honest man can do to get a fair investigation of these affairs, and now turn the matter over to my Republican friends; it is enough for me to say that the people of North Carolina will hold the dominant party to a strict accountability. He denounced the whole thing as a farce.

After some further debate the motion was lost, yeas 16, nays 58.

Mr. Ellington offered a resolution for employing a phonographic reporter for the Committee. Referred.

On motion of Mr. Justice, the House went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. Pou in the Chair.

Mr. Barnett moved that the Committee rise, and ask leave to sit again to-morrow morning—not agreed to.

The Superintendent of Public Works then took his place at the Bar of the House.

The question recurred on the amendment of Mr. Holden to the question asked by Mr. Malone in the morning session. The amendment was adopted.

The Superintendent then answered: "I have been refused trains to inspect some of the Roads. I have not been refused the inspection of the books of any of the Companies, for I have not asked to be allowed to do so."

Mr. Seymour. State which, if any of the Railroads now in progress of construction in N. C., you have inspected this Fall.

Answer. I have inspected the Eastern Division of the W. N. C. Railroad.

Mr. Ames. State by what roads you have been refused trains for the purpose indicated.

A. The W. C. & R., neglected to furnish a train; the W. & W., and the W. & M., and C. & C., did not reply to a communication requesting trains. The R. & G., also refused.

Mr. Seymour. State what progress had been made in the construction of the Eastern Division of the W. N. C. Road, and what work was going on there at the date of your inspection of that Road.

Answer. I only inspected the Road as far as Morganton, there being no track laid beyond, except a few miles, and the train does not run regularly on that part of the Road.

After a few more unimportant questions, on motion the Committee arose, reported progress and asked leave to sit again, which was agreed to.

On motion of Reynolds (colored,) the rules were suspended and the bill concerning the compensation of School Committees was taken up.

The question recurred upon a substitute reported by the Education Committee, which was adopted.

The bill then passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Smith, of Alleghany, the rules were suspended and the bill concerning the boundray lines of Alleghany and Wilkes, was taken up and passed its several readings.

The Speaker announced Messrs. Moore, of Chowan, French, Sinclair, Argo and Jarvis as the Special Committee of five to manage the investigation in Committee of the Whole.

Mr. Jarvis asked to be excused from serving upon the Committee. Every proposition introduced by Conservatives upon this floor for a full and fair investigation, had been voted down. Leading Republicans, (Seymour and Sinclair,) had declared that their party could not afford to allow Democrats to take the lead in this matter, now he wished to give Republicans a full swing.

The proceedings of the Committee of the Whole would show to any one the intention of the dominant party, not to allow certain facts, throwing light upon certain Railroad matters, to be brought out.

Twelve million dollars of bonds had been issued by the State under acts passed by a Republican Legislature. These bonds were placed in the hands of certain men and have been, in part or whole, sold in New York. Months upon months, have elapsed, no information is received by the people, what has become of this money, and little or no work is done upon the various Roads for which the bonds were issued.

The impoverished condition of the people generally, enormous and burdensome taxation and lavish and reckless appropriations of money by the Legislature, were fast educating the public mind to repudiation. To avert such a calamity as repudiation, he (Mr. Jarvis) had co-operated with other gentlemen to endeavor to ferret out the parties who were charged with swindling the State to the tune of millions in their misuse and dishonest manipulation of her bonds.

Now that the dominant party in this House had determined (for so it seems by the actions of its leaders) to thwart every measure which might tend to elicit the truth of these charges of fraud, he as a member of the Conservative side of the House, would not be made a party to such a farcical business as this investigation.—The Republican party were responsible to the people for these appropriations; they were responsible for placing the bonds in the hands of these men charged with fraud and they must account to the people as best they can. Taking into consideration all these facts and the declaration of the Republican leaders upon this floor, that that party would and must conduct this investigation to suit their party views, therefore, he (Mr. J.) would decline any connection with the affair.

Mr. Seymour denied the remarks attributed to him by Mr. Jarvis.

Mr. Durham said he had heard the gentleman make the remarks. The Republicans had voted down every measure looking towards an investigations of these frauds, proposed by Democrats. The Committee of the Whole was a Republican measure, proposed by a Republican, (Mr. Pou.) The Conservatives had to vote for this Committee of the Whole or nothing; the dominant party would allow nothing else. Now the action of certain Republicans, sustained by their party, plainly indicated an intention not to allow a fair investigation even in the Committee of the Whole. If the Committee had been allowed to proceed to New York, astounding disclosures could have been made, but the Republican party voted it down. Mr. Ellis' proposition was also voted down by the same party. Now as the gentlemen from Craven, (Mr. Seymour,) and Robeson, (Mr. Sinclair,) had declared that the Republicans could not afford to allow Democrats to lead in this investigation, they (the Democrats) proposed to have nothing to do with the matter and let Republicans manage the whole matter.

He hoped the gentleman from Tyrell (Jarvis) would be excused.

Mr. Moore, of Chowan, insisted that Democrats were responsible for the Committee of the Whole being raised.

Mr. Sinclair explained his position in the matter.

Mr. Argo, hoped the gentleman would be excused, and proceeded to state the position of matters in the same way as did Messrs. Durham and Jarvis. He for good reasons would not decline serving upon the Committee.

Mr. Jarvis said the Republican party was on trial—and he was in favor of giving the party an opportunity of defending itself. He was appointed on a Committee raised to consider a proposition of the gentleman from New Hanover and he asked to be excused, and the gentleman desires not to allow him to be excused, but desired to compel him to aid in defence of the Republican party. He was told he could participate in the investigation and ask any question he pleased. But questions were not allowed to be answered. The Treasurer was asked to whom the interest on the bonds had been paid. He stood before the House for an hour and the question was never answered.

Mr. Welch said he hoped that the gentleman would be excused, &c. Charges had been made by certain Republicans, that the Democratic members were attempting to dodge out of this investigation. I pronounce this a vile slander. The facts are that Republicans voted down every other mode of investigation and would have the Committee of the Whole. The Democrats seeing that Republicans would allow nothing else, were compelled to vote for that measure.

He (Mr. Welch) had introduced resolutions allowing Republicans to appoint the Committee to investigate these alleged frauds, Republican members of this House offered amendment after amendment which I accepted to do away with the charge that I was actuated by partisan motives, and seeing that my resolutions would not be accepted, I accepted a substitute naming a Committee, composed of a majority of Republicans. This substitute was rejected by the dominant party, then and not until then, did Conservatives vote for the Committee of the Whole.

He (Mr. Welch,) thought, notwithstanding all protestations and denials to the contrary, that the Republicans had so acted in this matter as to convince any reasonable man that if fraud did exist, this Committee would not be permitted to ferret it out.

Mr. Durham said it amused him to see Republicans squirming and wriggling so.

After some debate, Mr. Jarvis was excused, and Mr. Malone substituted in his place.

By consent Mr. Robinson introduced a resolution concerning the act providing for a system of public instruction. Referred. (This resolution will be published in full shortly.)

The House then adjourned.

NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH.

FIFTH DAY.

MONDAY, Dec. 6th.

The Conference held a night session, at which some business was transacted, which will first claim the attention of your correspondent.

The Temple, on Tar River circuit, Edgecombe county, N. C., five miles South of Enfield on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, was selected as the place, and Wednesday before the first Sunday in December, 1870, as the time for holding the next annual session of the Conference.

Monday morning 11 o'clock was set apart for the purpose of holding a public missionary meeting—usual at our annual convocations.

Rev. C. F. Harris, Rev. T. H. Pegram and Dr. L. W. Batchelor, were appointed Fraternal Messengers to the next Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, North Carolina District.

Rev. John Paris and Rev. R. H. Wills were appointed Fraternal Messengers to the ensuing Maryland Conference to the Methodist Protestant Church.

On Monday morning the session was opened with religious exercises. Rev. J. R. Ball and * * * was appointed Fraternal Messengers to the Holston Conference M. P. Church.

The Literary Committee, to whom was referred a book called a Testament, published by a society called "the American Bible Union, New York, London," after some examination of it beg leave to report that the Methodist Protestant Church had nothing to do with the publication of said book.

Resolved furthermore, That our church, in common, with most all the Protestant churches of the christian world, receive and adhere to the commonly received version of the Holy Scriptures, ex. such as is published by the American Bible Society.

Signed, C. F. HARRIS.

The Committee on Literature made this second report: "Your Committee to whom was referred the paper relating to Yadkin College, having had the subject under consideration, beg leave to report as follows:

1st. Acknowledging the great force and importance of early impressions, we urge upon you the necessity of institutions of learning, at which our children may be educated in the principals of that religion which we profess.

2nd. We regard the proposition made to you by the Trustees of Yadkin College as a favourable one, and worthy of your acceptance. We recommend the acceptance of the proposition of the Trustees."

Signed, R. H. WILLS,
C. F. HARRIS,
JNO. D OGBURN.

Rev. J. C. Deans, was appointed agent for Yadkin College.

The following paper was submitted by its author and the Conference directed it spread upon the Journal.:

"To the Conference. The severe indisposition from which I have been suffering for the last three weeks and which has incapacitated me from mingling with you in your present session, also admonishes me of the necessity of returning home as early as practicable. I have therefore to request the privilege of retiring for the remainder of the session. In taking my leave of you, dear brethren, allow me to say, that while I presumed not to speak in the language of prophecy, yet, the probabilities are, that I shall come in and go out from among you, but little if any more for the future. For nearly thirty-nine years this has been my privilege, but it will in the providence of God, soon cease forever. The cause I love so well, has demanded and received the sacrifice during the current year, of my health if not of my life. The united prayers of the Conference are hereby invited; and should we not meet again on earth may we all meet in Heaven, is the prayer of your brother, in Christ."

WILL. H. WILLS.

In accordance with the law in the case, the Conference resolved itself into "the Electoral College" for the purpose of electing by ballot seven ministerial and seven lay representatives to the ensuing General Conference to be held in Baltimore in May 1870. With one single failure, and that during the war, the General Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church has met regularly once in four years, since 1830, the first of the series. After the election of seven ministers to-wit: W. H. Wills, T. H. Pegram, C. F. Harris, A. C. Harris, A. M. Lowe, A. W. Lineberry and John Paris, the College adjourned to 9 o'clock, A. M. to morrow.

The Conference then transacted some business in the interests of the trustees of Jamestown Female College. Rev. J. C. Deans was also appointed agent for this interest.

The Conference then adjourned.

I have failed I believe to state that during the continuance of the Conference regular pulpit services have been held at the Church at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7 o'clock P. M. with the exceptions noted.

Your correspondent was absent on yesterday but has been informed that notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather the Church was filled during the morning and afternoon hours, which were filled by Rev. Mr. Bates and Rev. Mr. Driskhouse respectively. Our most youthful preacher filled the pulpit at night.

The Church of the M. E. Church South at Thomasville, and Bethany Chapel, belonging to the German Reform and Luthern Church, were tendered and appointments made for their pulpits.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1869.

☞ THEO. N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

DR. THOMAS H. TURNER having returned to his old home, offers his professional services to the citizens of Hillsboro and vicinity. 3w

COME UP TO THE LICKLOG.—The tax collector makes a strong appeal to the voters, in our advertising columns, in favor of reform in regard to taxpaying in the city—read it.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—United States vs. Wm. D. Rayner, charged with having tobacco in his possession without proper stamps. N. McKay and T. C. Fuller for defendants, submitted, judgment suspended on payment of costs.

ST. MARY'S.—We call attention to the card of Dr. Smedes in regard to the opening of the next session of this long established and popular school, inserted two days ago in the Sentinel. This Institution has lost nothing in the way of advantages it offers for the acquisition of a thorough and accomplished education. For particulars apply for a circular to Dr. Aldert Smedes, Rector.

MASONIC VISIT TO THE D. & D. INSTITUTE.—By invitation of the Principal W. J. Palmer, Esq., the Grand Lodge, now in session here, visited the Deaf and Dumb and Blind Institution, on Wednesday afternoon, and witnessed some of the exercises of the pupils. Grand Master Vance delivered a short address, expressing the gratification of the visitors, at the happy and contented appearance of the pupils, and on returning to the Lodge room, a resolution of thanks to Mr. Palmer was unanimously adopted.

AUCTION TO DAY.—At the auction store of W. H. Jones & Co. to-day, a large lot of very excellent household furniture will be sold, without reserve to the highest bidder. There are some forty or fifty packages, consisting of beds, bedsteads, mattresses, wardrobes, washstands, bureaus, tables &c., &c., and among the articles, some china said to be over a hundred years old.

LECTURE AT TUCKER HALL, TO-NIGHT.—We take pleasure in announcing another Lecture, at Tucker Hall, to night, for three reasons:

In the first place, the proceeds are to be devoted to purely benevolent purposes.

In the second place, we are glad to co operate in every effort that promises, by means of Lecturers or otherwise, to advance and promote the literary tastes and rational enjoyments of the community.

And, in the third place, the gentleman, who has consented to deliver the Lecture, Mr. F. H. Busbee, is a young townsman of merit and talent, whom we shall be delighted to see honored by a full turn-out of the people. We are sure that his effort will be everyway creditable to himself, and both attractive and instructive to his audience, and we bespeak for him, and the charity in behalf of which he has agreed to speak, a generous appreciation.

See announcement in another column.

GRAND LODGE—ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—The session of the Grand Lodge has been a pleasant and harmonious one, and the usual business has nearly been disposed of.

On Tuesday night the election of officers for the ensuing year took place, and the officers elected and appointed were installed on last night by M. W. Robert W. Best, Past Grand Master. They are as follows:

Gen. R. B. Vance, Asheville,	G. M.
John Nichols, Raleigh,	G. S. W.
S. H. Rountree, Kinston,	G. J. W.
W. E. Anderson, Raleigh,	G. Tress'r.
D. W. Bain,	G. Sec'y.
Dr. Ellis Malone, Lou'sburg,	Dep. G. M.
Rev. Geo. Patterson, Wilmington,	G. Chap.
E. J. Bowen, Newbern,	G. S. D.
R. G. Eubanks, Pittsboro,	G. J. D
J. A. Reagan, Buncombe,	G. Marshall.
S. D. Thurston, Brunswick,	G. S. Bearer.
J. Q. Jackson, Greene,	G. Pursuivant.
J. M. Betts, Raleigh,	G. Tyler.

The session will probably close to-night.

CHILDREN'S SINGING.—We love to hear children sing, and have often imagined that the angels, who are "ministering spirit," often stoop to listen to their sweet music, as being akin to that of the skies.

Those who have similar feelings in regard to the sweet warblings of childhood may enjoy a rich treat at Tucker Hall on to morrow (Friday) evening, where the scholars of the Baptist Sunday School, of this city, will give a concert of vocal music.—We have heard them sing, and can assure strangers who may not have enjoyed the privilege, that the concert will be well worth attending.

WINDY.—Reader, did you ever roast chestnuts, or see any body else roast them? If you have, you will remember how they fly as they are stirred. Now, keep the idea in your mind, and then read the correspondence between John A. McDonald and W. T. Guster, in Wednesday morning's Standard. Nuff ced.

AN UNPROFITABLE PLEASURE RIDE.—We learn from the Charlotte Observer that a gentleman (?) of that city took a ride with Miss Sallie Rumage, a few days ago, and at the terminus of the little suburban excursion, found himself minus sixty dollars, which he had in his pocket when they set out. It seems Sallie is a free and easy dam sel, and rumaged his pockets successfully during the ride. At last accounts she was in "durance vile."

The Demand Tells The Story.—From all directions orders for PHALON'S VITALIA OR SALVATION FOR THE HAIR come pouring in. All the noxious Dyes &c, go down before it. A year hence they will be unmarketable. The ladies say it is as pleasant to use as a perfumed toilet water and it is as transparent as crystal. Nothing else reproduces so perfectly the original hue of the hair.

CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE.

The following letter from a New York lawyer, as to the disadvantages of the Code of Civil Procedure, which has been imposed on the people of North Carolina by the Tourgees and other Northern adventurers, will be read with interest by the legal profession and the people of the State. This code has been tried in New York for twenty years, and the injury from the adoption of it, and abandonment of the system of law and equity is shown in the letter, which we find in the Old North State, and which appears to have been written in reply to a member of the Bar in this State, who had become enamored with the novelties of the code.

BUFFALO, Nov. 20th, 1869.

My Dear Sir: I received your letter of October 21st, but it has been impossible for me to reply until to day; nor would any reply of mine have been of any particular use to you with the views you are taking. These I have read attentively, assuming as I did that it was through your kindness that I was receiving the papers—"The Old North State." I have received six of them, and possibly these are not all, containing your articles.

The abandonment of the old system of writs and pleadings by judicial decisions, I regard as destroying all chances of securing accuracy, economy, satisfaction and dispatch, in the administering of justice. The evils we were suffering, before our Code of 1848, grew out of the relaxation, or the disuse, of some of the fundamental rules of the old methods. Twenty years experience under the Code, have literally overwhelmed us with such an aggravation, that it takes, now, eight to ten years, to carry a case through the courts, ending in our Court of Appeals. A dozen law suits, now, require in this State eight fold the labor, the delay, the expense, the same number would have exacted under the old method—even as they existed under our Revised Statutes. There is not a lawyer in the State who practised under the old methods, who does not concede this comparison between the old and the new methods, in favor of the former. It was only in respect of the folly of abandoning the distinct methods of proceeding in Law and Equity, and the classification of Legal Remedies, or actions, that I attempted to deal with our Code—and I am more and more, persuaded of the necessity of the old distinctions and of compelling the parties and their lawyers to analyze the controversy by the use of prescribed judicial or logical formula, and settling among themselves, beforehand, the points on which they must of necessity, or on which they are willing, to reply. There may be many things in our modes of proceeding, we more strictly denominate practice, in which I have no doubt you are right in urging an improvement. But improvements of this nature I think more appropriately belong to the rules of the Courts. The Judges, I think, always have had power enough for such supervision. At any rate, the Judges ought to have this power and exercise it, so that every species of labor, expense and delay, susceptible of it, be abbreviated or avoided as soon as it becomes apparent. In this quarter of improvement, I go the furthest with you. The evils which led to the supposed alleviation by means of this Code, could all have been obviated, or averted by our Judges, had these gentlemen done their duty and exercised the power, expressly conferred upon them by our Revised Statutes!

But I regard the distinction between Law and Equity and the old methods in each as fundamental. I regard too, the common law actions, for damages, either for the breach of a contract, or the commission of a tort, with the logical formula for ascertaining in the first place whether there is a point of contestation, and what it is, as indispensable, as I have endeavored to explain in my pamphlet. I think that the use of the prescribed formulæ must be compelled. So far as brevity is concerned, I insist that it can never be attained or secured in any other way than by these prescribed and compulsory formulæ. But I allow, too, that these must be stripped of the verbosity the Lawyers indulged in, when their fees were measured by the folio.

You can get nothing superior, more expeditious, accurate and convenient, than the old system of Writs, as they were used under our Revised Statutes. For instance, the writ of Scieri Facias, the Writ of Inquiry, the Writ of Error, &c., &c. Such writs were expressive of the object designed. We fill up the printed blanks with the statement needed in the particular case and accomplished in our law office, what we now have to go to the Court for on affidavits and get an order, instead of resorting to the writ. 'Tis incredible, the number of motions we now make in doing what we once did without ever resorting to a Judge or a Court.

I do not remember that I sent you the enclosed. I now send it, that you may see, if you have not already noticed it, what views the Supreme Court of the United States is taking of these Codes. Beside the opinion of Justice Grier, I wish you would look into the other cases of that Court of the like kind. I think it is plain, that in our National Courts, the old methods will be preserved and that they must be, till the Constitution is altered. When we have so much trouble between what is National and State, why should we permit what, if carried to its extreme, might give us 36 State Codes, or modes, of procedure, each distinct and differing from the others and all in constant conflict or incongruity with the methods in vogue in our National Courts. It seems to me, a sort of bedlam let loose upon the scientific method of analyzing a controversy and administering justice by any corresponding scale of uniformity and intelligence. It must end in destroying the value of precedents; the value of all our reports, for these did, and do, depend upon the classifications of actions at law and the use of the logical formula prescribed and required to be in conformity with the well known system.—I think you would see, were you here, the hopeless state we are in. Like the poor girl who betrayed the Roman Citadel for the sake of what the assailants wore upon their left arm, the plotters of this Code have been crushed by the hideous mass of the volumes of reports, thrown upon them, manufactured out of pleading at large and the ten thousand questions and appeals overwhelming our Courts in consequence.

But there is no end to this, and I will not trouble you any farther. I thank you most kindly for the papers which as I said before I have read attentively and with the great interest I feel in the subject.

Your Friend and Obedient Servant,
WM. H. GREEN.

GOOD SMOKING TOBACCO.—See the card of Mr. W. T. Blackwell, successor to J. R. Green & Co., in the manufacture of genuine Durham Smoking Tobacco. This tobacco may be known by having on the label the picture of a big Durham boo hoo cow. It is neatly put up and we are prepared to say, from actual test, that it is unsurpassed.

KEEPING EVEN.—Forney says, "the Democrats dog Gen. Grant." In order to keep even, Gen. Grant has "dogged" our Lieutenant Governor.

LIFE INSURANCE.

All who think of applying for a Life Policy, are invited to call at Pescud's Insurance office, (front room over his old Drug Store) and examine into the cost of a policy in the National Life Insurance Co., U. S. A., as contrasted with the cost in any other company.

The National is a Home Company wherever it does business, and as soon as arrangements can be made, will establish a Loan Office in Raleigh and other points, so as to increase facilities which our people need in developing and improving the State.

The National is the most popular Company in the world, having issued nearly 10,000 Policies since the date of her organization. (August 1868), which is six times greater than any of the older Companies ever issued during the same period of their history, and two thirds of the hundreds who have applied through the undersigned for Policies, are, or were insured in other popular Companies.

The capital $1,000,000 (all paid up before a policy was issued,) is safely invested in first class, unincumbered mortgage, and the most reliable and profitable Government securities, all of which, with its earnings, together with all the premiums, and their earnings, (except four per centum for the leading) for the prompt payment of its losses.

During a period of 14 months only 18 deaths have occurred, and three of them were from accident.

Our rates are so low, that the assured are required to be sound in all respects, and the medical examiner must be satisfied, that they have no predisposition to constitutional disease, either by conformation or family history.

I keep on my table, all the Books, Circulars and statements of other popular Companies, so that all who wish to learn, which is the most secure Company, and where they can procure the largest policy, for the least money, may make their own calculations.

SCHOOL BOOKS.

The Most Eminent Teachers in North Carolina DECLARE EMPHATICALLY IN FAVOR OF

The National Series of School Books,

WHICH WERE

Adopted by the State Board of North Carolina, Sept 9, 1869.

UNANIMOUSLY

Adopted by the State Board of Alabama, Aug. 18, 1869.

UNANIMOUSLY

Adopted by the State Board of Louisiana, July 17, 1869.

☞ By reference to the accompanying lists of Text Books cited in the Schools of North Carolina in 1858, and those adopted this year, it will be seen that, in nearly every important particular,

THE OLD NORTH CAROLINA STANDARD IS RETAINED.

1869.	1855
The Present Standard.	The Original Standard.
Adopted by the Board of Education.	Recommended by the State Superintendent,
Parker and Watson's Spellers.	Webster's Elementary Spelling Book.
Parker and Watson's Primer	N. C. Reader No. 1.
Parker & Watson's Readers.	North Carolina Reader No. II.
Beers' System of Penmanship,	North Carolina Reader No. III.
Davies Primary Arithmetic.	Davies' Primary Arithmetic.
Davies' Intellectual Arithmetic.	Davies' Intellectual Arithmetic.
Davies' Written and Practical Arith's.	Davies' School Arithmetic.
Monteith's Series of Geographies.	Monteith's Manual of Geography.
McNally's School Geography.	McNally's School Geography.
Monteith's History United States.	Bullion's English Grammar.

From Rev. C. H. Wiley formerly State Supt. of Education.

Bristol, Tenn., Oct. 14, 1869.

I had seen by the papers what had been done by the Board of Education in North Carolina and was glad. I had ample reasons for my former recommendations in the use of the books in our schools.

These Books are Used by the Best Schools in the State.

Late Testimonials in Brief.

It affords me great pleasure to bestow on them my heartiest commendation. They are vastly superior to any other books of the kind I have yet seen.—W. H. Wheatmeill, Pete Clay, and Math. School, Elizabeth City, Oct. 25, 1869.

Send me ten Davies' Intellectual Arithmetics for introduction. They are superior to any I have seen.—W. F. Erwin, Mount Olive, Oct 20, 1869.

I intend using the same books in my school as those used in the Country schools. * * I am already using Monteith's Geographies.—John D. Johnson, Tarkinville, Sept. 26, 1869.

I am and have ever been an earnest advocate of uniformity in school books. The Board recommendations—Arithmetics and Geographies—are the best that could have been made.—H. E. Smith, Lincolnton, Sept. 25th, 1869.

Because these books are adopted by the State Board, as well as for the merits of the books themselves, we wish to introduce them, and use them exclusively in our school.—Rev. S. C. Alexander, Charlotte, Oct. 11, 1869.

Steele's "Nat. Philosophy" received. Am struck with its superiority to the other in many respects. As a class is waiting, substitute in my order Steele's Philosophy for first introduction.—G. W. Jewett, Wilmington, Oct. 13, 1869.

Davies' Mathematics was adopted by me in 1858, and up to this time I have examined no work superior to them. I have examined McNally's Geography and Peck's Gunot's Natural Philosophy. I consider them most excellent works and shall put them into my boys' hands at the earliest period.—J. E. Dugger, Prin. Male Academy Warrenton.

It is my purpose to introduce Monteith's (No 4) into my school. I give it the preference for the information which it gives on the subject of Physical Geography. The maps and questions in both works (Monteith and McNally) seem to me to be admirable.—Rev. Alexander Sharp, D.D., Rector of St. Mary's, Raleigh.

The system of Geography—Monteith and McNally—I am well pleased with.—Rev. Wm. S. Lacy, Raleigh.

Davies' Arithmetics, Monteith's Geographies and the National Readers are too well known to require a word from me. Monteith and Davies are the best that I am acquainted with.—Prof. Frank Vatchan, Elizabeth City, Oct. 11, 1869.

I have waited patiently for the adoption by the Board of Education of this state of the books to be used in the public schools, and am much pleased to find that so many have been selected from the National series.—Rev. W. L. Miller, Charlotte, Oct. 1, 1869.

Am much pleased with both the Spellers and all the readers; and as to the Series of Geographies, I have long used no others when these could be obtained.—Dr. Wm. B. Hanna, Prin. High School, Snow Hill.

The introduction of so much valuable matter on the subjects of Physical Geography and Geology, and in a form so simple and intelligible makes it, (Monteith's Intermediate Geography) in my judgment, a charming school book.—Jos. Wm Bingham, Prin. Bingham School.

I design introducing McNally's Geography and Davies' University Arithmetic.—Dr. Gloss, Prin. Durham Academy.

Will introduce the University Arithmetic next term. An admirable work.—M. L. Little, Prin. Pleasant Hill Seminary, Newton.

Monteith's Geographies are excellent works, and I shall introduce them into my school.—Spencer Ivey, Prin. Ashburn Academy.

The superior and durable style of binding of your works is a very great recommendation—one with which I have long been favorably impressed.—Prof. Wm. A. Gerichard, late Hillsboro' Military Academy.

I have introduced your National Series of Readers. We find them to be excellent, just suited to our purpose. With Davies' Mathematical series we have been long familiar, and can find no good reason for changing them. In the Primary Department we have Monteith's Geographies.—Rev. G. D. Brenneth, Prin. Female Seminary, Mount Pleasant.

The National Series of Readers and Spellers are the best with which I am acquainted: I shall henceforth use no others in my school. I use Davies. I consider his works incomparably superior in many respects. Monteith's Series afford a gradual but thorough and systematic progression.—Prof. Jos. H. Fox, President Stanstonburg Scientific High School.

I regard Monteith's Physical and Intermediate Geography as one of the best books of its kind. It has several points of superiority over most primary Geographies; Geography is here treated from the only true and rational standpoint, viz: of Geology and Physical Geography.—Prof. W. C. Kerr, State Geologist of North Carolina.

Mr. Taylor Johnson, Olive's Chapel, has introduced the National Readers, Monteith's Geographies, Davies Arithmetics, Clark's Grammars, etc.; Mr. John Franks, Grove P. O., has introduced the National Series throughout; Mr. W. A. Branch, New Hill P. O., uses the National Series throughout; Mr. Adolphus Rogers, Green Level P. O., uses the National Reader, Copy-Books, Monteith's Geographies, and York's Grammar; Mrs. Emma Baughan, Cary P. O., uses the National Series; Mr. H. C. Olive, New Hill P. O., introduced Monteith's Geographies. There are now at least 250 pupils in Wake and Chatham counties who are daily using the National Series of books, within my knowledge.—Prof. W. H. Merrett, Chatham county, Sept. 14, 1869.

I am glad to learn that some of your books are to be introduced into our State Schools.—Prof. J. M. M Caldwell, Greensboro' High school, Oct. 22, 1869.

Distinguished Editors and Critics Praise Them.

The Series must prove acceptable The structure of language is beautifully exhibited.—Fayetteville Presbyterian.

This firm will allow no competition in the price of books published by them which are among the best in the State.—Statesville American, 1868.

Have a reputation for merit unsurpassed.—Statesville American, 1869.

Peculiarly adapted to supply the wants we have long felt.—Greensboro' Patriot.

Have acknowledged superiority by the most competent judges.—Western Sentinel.

Davies is excellent in the first degree.—Wadesboro Argus.

Are excelled by none of the many used, and they are superior to most of them.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

When we examine the bright pages of the National Series, and think how we groped along the dry and uninteresting "task" of our boyhood, we are constrained to be envious of the happy pupils of the present.—Wilmington Post.

The National Series has attained probably a higher reputation than any other complete series of School Books now in existence.—Wilmington Herald.

LOSSES PAID PROMPTLY IN CASH.

LIST OF LOSSES ACTUALLY PAID BY THE ÆTNA LIFE INS. CO. AT THE BRANCH OFFICE, IN RALEIGH, BY THE HANDS OF W. H. CROW, GENERAL MANAGER OF THE STATE AND PART OF VA.

"	22,301	15,00

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 24,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

Knickerbocker,	$16,54
Equitable,	17,44
North America,	21,16
Brooklyn,	21,09
Universal,	27,24
John Hancock,	18,27
The National,	65,49
The Ætna,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It insured more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 587 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,337 new policies, more than any other Company except the Mutual Life, received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
